V. MINOR + ELECTIVES (29 credits)

In addition to Major and Pathways requirements, students must complete the following to reach 120 credits for graduation:

- Minor, cognate, or double major—Beyond studies in Communication, students must build content knowledge in another area of focus by completing a minor or cognate (minimum 18 credits) or double major (credits vary by major). Students should NOT take COMM, CMST, JMC, or PR courses as part of this requirement.
- Electives—Once students complete a minor or cognate, they still need credits for graduation. Students might consider education abroad, an internship, a field study, undergraduate research, independent study, or other non-required Pathways or foreign language courses. Students should NOT include COMM, CMST, JMC, or PR courses among these electives.

Minor and elective credits: 29

Total credits for graduation: 120

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

- Minimum of 120 semester credit hours from the following categories: Core Degree Requirements, Major Requirements, Major Electives, Pathways to General Education, Minor and Electives.
- Minimum of 46 credits in COMM, CMST, JMC, or PR; maximum 48 credits in COMM, CMST, JMC, or PR.
- Overall GPA of 2.0; major GPA 2.0, based on all COMM, CMST, JMC, and PR courses the student has completed.
- Courses taken in major to fulfill graduation requirements must be graded A-F (not pass/fail).
- COMM, CMST, JMC, or PR courses taken for a minor may NOT be counted toward major requirements.
- Foreign Language—Requirement can be met in one of three ways:
 - 3 years of single foreign language in high school OR
 - 2 years of a single language in high school plus 1106 or equivalent in college OR
 - 1105-1106 or equivalent in college (This credit must be in addition to the 120 credits required for graduation.)

PROGRESS TOWARD DEGREE

A student will be certified as making satisfactory progress toward a degree by meeting these requirements:

- Completion of COMM 1004 within the first 3 classes (9 credits) in the major.
- Completion of COMM 1014 within the first 6 classes (18 credits) in the major. Minimum grade of C- required.
- Completion of COMM 2124 within the first 8 classes (24 credits) in the major.
- Overall GPA—Students who fall below 2.0 will follow university policies for probation and subsequent suspension if the GPA is not raised during the probation period.
- Major GPA—Students who fall below 2.0 in their major coursework will have one semester to regain the required GPA standards. All COMM, CMST, JMC, and PR courses are included in this calculation. A student who fails to make satisfactory progress toward degree after that semester will be blocked from continuing in CSSI or another Department of Communication major.

Summary of changes on the 2022 CSSI Major checksheet from the approved 2021 CSSI major checksheet

- + Throughout the checksheet, “Pathways to General Education” replaced all references to “Curriculum for Liberal Education.”
- + Under “II. Major Requirement” (Page 1), COMM 2014 (Speech Communication) replaced a general COMM elective as the required second course (with COMM 2004: Public Speaking) for transfer students who did not take COMM 1015-1016.
- + Under “II. Major Requirement” (Page 1):
 - + New CMST course designators replaced COMM designators for three courses: 3064, 3214 and 4214. JMC replaced the COMM designator for 4064.
 - + Students can now choose to take either CMST 4214 or JMC 4064. Note: CMST 4214 is a new course now going through the approval process. That new course is to be effective in Fall 2020.
- + Under “III. Major Electives” (Page 1):
 - + CMST, JMC and PR course designators replaced COMM designators on most elective courses.
 - + Students who take CMST 4214 as a major requirement can take JMC 4064 as a major elective. Those who take JMC 4064 as a major requirement can take CMST 4214 as a major elective.
- + Under “IV. Pathways to General Education” (Page 2), Pathways information replaced CLE information.
- + Under “V. Minors + Electives” and in other sections on Page 2, references to CMST, JMC, and PR courses were added.
